PORTUGAL'S REMARKABLE TOURIST EXPERIENCES

Alentejo Wines & Gastronomy: develop your creative potential...
Be a traditional winemaker and cooker for one day!

Program: Évora & Estremoz, February 23rd, 2019.

Informations & bookings: info@genuinealentejo.com

- ❑ Morning – 09h30: meeting with our private tour guide in Évora, in the “Giraldo” square, next to the marble fountain. After a 10-minute walk, we will arrive at the location where we will participate in a cooking class, having to assert our gastronomic and culinary skills, learning to cook our own traditional meal: a remarkable “hands-on” experience prepared by our hosts, who will help us to unveil many of the secrets of the Alentejo gastronomy, providing us a fun but simultaneously educational learning, to prepare regional traditional dishes and desserts, enjoyed then during lunch, with regional certified wines, in excellent company and conviviality.
- ❑ Afternoon: After lunch, we will departure from Évora towards Estremoz in private transportation (bus), to visit one of the best wineries of Portugal, nationally and internationally awarded for the excellent quality of its wines. After visiting the cellars, learning about the soils, grape varieties and the process and procedures of vinification to produce several blends, we will participate in the “Oenologist for a day!” unique experience, learning so much more about the several wine varieties to be able to mix them to get our customized wine blend, according to our preference and personal taste, taking the product of this experience with us in personalized bottles. Departure from the winery, arriving in Évora around 18h30/19h00. End of the experience.

Important notes:

- Activity/experience for a minimum of 10 and a maximum of 25 registers.
- Not reaching the minimum of registers (10), the activity will not take place and the payments made will be returned to the registers during the conference in Évora.
